

Rabbi Ephraim Philip Lefkowitz

February 3, 2020

Events

FEB Levaya 10:30AM - 12:30PM

4

Congregation Sons-Israel Chapel / Cemetery
613 Ramsey St, Lakewood, NJ, US, 08701

Comments

“ A webcast video has been added.

Congregation Sons Of Israel - February 04, 2020 at 08:46 AM

“ My dear Rabbi and heartfelt friend. I adore your strength and belief in all your undertakings. Your love of your children always made me pause - you adore them and hug your friends. I miss you Ryan ryan jacobson - July 25, 2020 at 07:48 PM

“ I met Rabbi Lefkowitz in 1996 in Chicago and he was fundamental in my return to the Jewish roots he help me identify and embrace after a ten-year journey that culminated with my Othodox conversion in Jerusalen in 2006. If I wouldn't have known him, my life could have been quite different. Ever since I made aliyah to Israel, I wished to see him again and hold his warmth in my hand and soul, the gentle loving fire of his heart welcoming to dwell in G-d's heart. An extraordinary man he was. A life worthy to be gladly remembered, honor and emulated with the purest Jewish pride the Creator of All calls the goodness He wants to fully reveal in this world through His people and those who share it as He commands. Certainly, there are many special moments I had the priviledge to share with Rabbi Lefkowitz that I will treasure for the rest of my life, hoping to see him again and embrace him in his Godly assigned Beit Midrash in Gan Eden.

Ariel Ben Avraham (f. Zapata)
Kochav Yaakov, Matte Binyamin. Eretz Israel.

Ariel Ben Avraham - February 10, 2020 at 02:19 AM

“ I am so saddened by the departure of Rabbi Lefkowitz from this world. He was a dear friend and remains one of the greatest teachers I have known. I owe him so much. My prayers for his children and grandchildren who were the joy of his old age. May he find peace in the heavenly Jerusalem! Rev. Richard T. Simon, Archdiocese of Chicago

rev richard t simon - February 04, 2020 at 12:01 PM